

December 13th, 2023

Members Present: Bob Hogan, Zach Wight, Betty Connor, Todd Young, Lisa Rhodes

Staff Present: Jonn Lunsford, Darby Jordan

Called to Order: 4:07 PM

Minutes: November minutes were unanimously approved.

Public Comments: None

Correspondence & Communication: Jonn shared that City Council is working on the 2024 budget and there is the annual amount allocated to the Arts Commission of $3000.

Winter Wonderland Walk:

The event went well and set up was done with many volunteers from the community as well as the high school. There were no expenses for the Arts Commission site.

Other Business:

98221 Gallery: one piece has sold and the artist is going to bring in a replacement piece.

Museum: the Burl Ives stand ups are displayed in many of the windows as well as the Olsen building downtown.

Madrona Grove: there will be an email call to artists going out with the details of the project.

Cap Sante Lookout: there is no art planned for this space yet. This is a Rotary project in the very early stages.

Public Art Map: there may need to be new photos of the art pieces taken, it was suggested that some student help may be possible.

Procession of the Species: this event is being combined with the Earth Day luminary parade. The group is looking at the Depot as a gathering spot. There will be workshops in preparation for the parade.

Discussion was had about the Arts Commission supporting this event and potentially being City sponsored.

AMP: Todd spoke about the upcoming Yule Bizarre at Buxtons and the collaboration of visual and musical art at future events.

Meeting adjourned at 4:52pm
