Piano-cortes recap: Bob shared that the event went great and public comments were very positive. Kylie's piano sold through the Arts Festival auction. Unfortunately, one piano was vandalized recently.

98221 Gallery: There have been two pieces sold so far in the gallery, a great success! Discussion was had about accepting prints vs originals for the showings. It was decided to include on the information form "original artwork preferred". This was voted unanimously yes by all Board members present. The next show will be up in time for the December Artwalk on December 6th. This show will not have a theme.

Library Cards: Trish asked for volunteers to help jury the submissions for new library card artwork. It was decided to email out the submissions and create a survey to come up with the finalists. The public will then vote on the winners.

Other Business: Zach offered a thank you to Betty and Kami for their hard work on Open Streets. There was a great turn out and feedback. The library bike rack painting is complete and looks amazing. There was discussion about decorating another rack, most would like to see the one in front of the Post Office. Zach also shared that the Wonderland Walk is December 13 and 14 from 5 to 8. There is a site that is decorated by the Arts Commission with frames and a Joe Treat statue. This year, the Parks Staff will be short handed so additional volunteers will be needed to help decorate the site.

Lisa brought up the Art Map and asked about the narrative for each piece. Darby was not given that information but stated that could be included on the site. Lisa will send that information to Darby.

Meeting adjourned at 4:52pm
